Introduction to the IPCE Law School

Introducing the IPCE Law School and the Practical Vocational Programme for Candidate Attorneys

The IPCE Law School (IPCE-LS) was established in 2012 and is accredited by the by the Legal Practice Council (LPC).

There are a limited number of places available, and applicants undergo a selection process before being accepted. An application form is attached to this information sheet and serves only as an application form – your acceptance is not guaranteed. All applicants will be informed via letter of the outcome of their application.

Purpose of the IPCE's Practical Vocational Programme for Candidate Attorneys:

To provide law graduates with the opportunity to acquire and develop practical legal skills required to become competent legal practitioners.

The primary benefit of attending the IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme is that law graduates gain a comprehensive set of competencies, which they may not gain as candidate legal practitioners during their period of service under a practical vocational training contract.

Pedagogical Learning and Delivery

The IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme consists of modules as prescribed by the regulations of the LPA. Learning is experience-centred to ensure that candidates will be able to perform on an entry level with minimal supervision.

Candidates learn within a practical context, in a simulated law firm environment. Each candidate is allocated to a 'law firm' - each 'law firm' will have a director & deputy director. Mock-courts and practical work form the foundation of the learning. Candidates exchange pleadings and draft the necessary court papers in action and application proceedings.

The medium of instruction is English, and the learning is provided by practising legal practitioners.

The timetable for the school's activities are as follows:

Day School:

Monday to Friday, 8:15 –16:00 and certain Saturdays from 8:30 –13:30.

See the dates on the Application Form.

Night/Online School:

Monday to Friday, 17:30 – 21:00 and certain Saturdays from 8:30 – 13:30.

Candidates that opt to attend online will only have access to their material online. No printed material will be sent. All lectures will be conducted via Microsoft Teams.

Registration for 2nd intake 2026 opens on 05 January 2026 and closes on 30 April 2026.

Programme Content

The IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme is based on experiential learning and the full 8 module programme will be shared during our first interaction and covers the primary Legal Knowledge areas.

Regulation 6 of the LPA is for candidates who want to register as attorneys and Regulation 7 is for candidates who want to register as advocates. All subject matter covered in Regulation 6 will be covered whilst regulation 7, generally, will be covered.

Admission: Requirements & Selection

LLB law graduates who successfully complete the IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme, qualify to reduce their PVT contract period by 12-months should they wish to be registered as attorneys. Those who want to be registered as advocates only require a 12-month PVT contract and no reduction is applicable.

Consideration will be given to the following:

- Candidates that have completed the LLB degree at a South African university.
- Candidates that have been awarded a South African BProc degree prior to 31 December 2004.
- Candidates that have completed a law degree in a foreign country, which is equivalent to the South African LLB degree, and which is recognised by SAQA as equivalent.

Confirmation of foreign accreditation by SAQA is the responsibility of the applicant.

A selection committee will consider the applications and may require applicants to attend interviews.

Assessment

Candidates are expected to be proficient in knowledge of the substantive law prior to attending the programme.

- A student's progress is monitored throughout the duration of the IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme.
- Attendance and preparation are of paramount importance to complete the programme successfully.
- Due to severe time constraints, candidates are expected to do independent self-study prior to attending lectures.
- Formative and summative assessments will be conducted.

For the attendance Schools a minimum of 50% per summative assessment and full attendance is required to complete the programme successfully.

To be considered for the IPCE-LS' Practical Vocational Programme, applicants must submit the following documents with their application forms –

- a certified copy of the applicant's South African identity document; and
- proof of law degree
 - a certified copy of the applicant's LLB degree from a South African university or an original letter from the Dean of Law of the University concerned, stating that the student has completed their LLB degree in the current year; alternatively, will have no more than two modules outstanding by the time the School commences; or
 - a certified copy of the applicant's BProc degree, awarded prior to 31 December 2004; or
 - a certified copy of written proof of a completed law degree in a foreign country, which is recognised by SAQA as equivalent to the South African LLB degree, and a certified copy of written proof of such recognition by SAQA.
